

Hawley GDPR Policy

This GDPR policy will denote how Hawley Group, trading as 'Hawley Energy Group' and all associated businesses & partners will use and protect any information when utilising our website.

Our policy is committed to being fair, lawful and transparent; with protecting your data being at the forefront.

Our data protection policy may be updated periodically, and we would advise you revisit our website to see any additional changes.

What do we do with your information?

As part of collecting direct marketing consent; we strictly prohibit the use of; pre-ticked boxes, opt-out only forms, bundled in competitions with mandatory consent or part of our standard terms & conditions.

We will only use your information for direct marketing; whereby we will send you adhoc promotional emails about new products or services, special offers and newsletters.

We adhere not to sell, distribute or lease your personal information to any other parties.

We will keep your data for a maximum of three years on and after then retire the information to our internal database, whereby it will be stored indefinitely as a previous customer, unless requested to be erased.

We are committed to ensuring your data is stored securely, and as such have suitable physical, electronic and managerial processes in place to safeguard the information.

How will we keep your information?

We will only collect necessary and adequate data to our marketing purposes; avoiding unnecessary and excessive amounts of data collection.

We aim to keep your data accurate and up to date as possible to the best of our knowledge.

We only use your information for our own purposes; which are not dissimilar to those circumstances in which you will already have consented to.

You may, at any time, object to being on our direct marketing mailing list, and can request to be removed and/or erased from our database by emailing enquiries@hawleyenergy.group

We aim to be completely transparent; and as such you may request by law any information we hold about you through a 'Subject Access Request', if you would like a copy of the information held then please write to us at Hawley Energy Group, Unit 6, The Tannery Business Centre, Halifax Road, Northowram, HX3 7HR or email us at enquiries@hawleyenergy.group